

Please read before you complete this form

This application form is for veterans reaching the New Zealand Superannuation qualification age and who have been in receipt of Weekly Income Compensation over a 10-year period. The Retirement Lump Sum recognises the veteran's reduced opportunity to save for retirement.

To apply, you must complete this application form and provide any supporting information or evidence required by Veterans' Affairs (VA).

If your application is incomplete it will be returned to you unprocessed.

Further information can be found in the Retirement Lump Sum factsheet on our website.

Entitlement

(section 149,
Veterans' Support
Act 2014)

A veteran, on reaching the New Zealand Superannuation qualification age is entitled to a Retirement Lump Sum if, before reaching that age, the veteran received, over a 10 year period, continuous or otherwise either:

- (i) Weekly Income Compensation including the Veteran's Pension (under 65), War Veteran's Allowance, War Service Pension and Economic Pension payable under the War Pensions Act 1954 or
- (ii) Weekly Income Compensation under Scheme One of the Veterans' Support Act 2014, or
- (iii) Weekly Compensation under Scheme Two of the Veterans' Support Act 2014.

A veteran must reach the New Zealand Superannuation qualification age on or after the commencement of the Veterans' Support Act 2014 (7th December 2014) to be entitled to the Retirement Lump Sum.

Asset Assessment

(section 150,
Veterans' Support
Act 2014,
regulations 35-39,
Veterans' Support
Regulations 2014)

A veteran who applies for a Retirement Lump Sum must also apply for an asset assessment using this form. VA will arrange for an asset assessment to be conducted as soon as is practicable after receiving an application.

A veteran with non-exempt assets that carry an assessment value in excess of the asset thresholds will not be entitled to receive a Retirement Lump Sum.

Please refer to our website for the current asset threshold rates.

Process for deciding claims

(sections 14 - 16,
Veterans' Support
Act 2014)

VA will make a decision on your claim as soon as is reasonably practicable after receiving the claim. VA may need to wait for you or any other person to provide further information required to determine whether or not to accept your claim.

Offences

(section 270,
Veterans' Support
Act 2014)

It is an offence to make a false statement or provide misleading information to VA. Anyone who does so commits an offence against this section and is liable on conviction to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 3 months or a fine not exceeding $5,000.

Asset Assessment

Assets to be included in the an asset assessment are the assets of the veteran and his or her spouse or partner that would come within the definition of assets in clause 4 of Schedule 27 of the Social Security Act 1964 (if the veteran were a person being means assessed under section 146 of that Act).

An asset is an exempt asset if it would be an exempt asset under:

- (i) Clause 4 of Schedule 27 of the Social Securities Act 1964, or
- (ii) Regulation 10 of the Social Security (Long-term Residential Care) Regulations 2005.

Allowable gifts are also excluded from the assessment if the gift would be or would be treated as an allowable gift under regulations 9 and 9A of the Social Security (Long-term Residential Care) Regulations 2005. The gifting period is to be read as the period of 5 years immediately preceding the date on which the veteran reached New Zealand Superannuation qualification age.

If VA is satisfied that a veteran or his or her spouse or partner has directly or indirectly deprived themselves of any assets (other than exempt or excluded assets), the veteran's assessment may be conducted as if the deprivation has not occurred.

Assets we count include:

- (i) cash or savings
- (ii) bonus bonds
- (iii) investments or shares
- (iv) life insurance policies
- (v) loans made to other people (including family trusts)
- (vi) boats, caravans and campervans
- (vii) investment properties
- (viii) your house and car (depending on whether you have a spouse or partner)

Assets we do not count include:

- (i) pre-paid funeral expenses for you and your partner of up to $10,000 each, if they are held in a recognised funeral plan.
- (ii) personal belongings such as clothing and jewellery
- (iii) household furniture and effects.

As soon as is practicable after receiving this form, VA will contact you to arrange an asset assessment. The information you provide in this form will be used in the assessment.

15 Threshold Election

If you have a spouse or partner and have completed question 10, please elect which asset threshold you would like to be assessed against:

asset threshold, excluding the value of a residential dwelling and a vehicle asset threshold, including the value of a residential dwelling and a vehicle.

If you do not have a spouse or partner you will be assessed against the asset threshold, including the value of a residential dwelling and a vehicle.

Privacy Statement

The Veterans' Support Act 2014 (the Act) which is administered by the New Zealand Defence Force allows us to obtain further information about you to help us assess your application. This may happen when you apply for or are receiving an entitlement. The Privacy Act 1993 requires us to tell you why we collect the information and what we will do with it.

You are not required to give Veterans' Affairs any information, but if you do not provide all the information we ask for, your application for an entitlement and/or assistance may not be able to be processed and may be returned to you.

Why we collect information

The information we collect about you will be held by Veterans' Affairs New Zealand (Veterans' Affairs), which is a unit of the New Zealand Defence Force. We use this information for the purpose of:

- Administering claims and entitlements under the Veterans' Support Act 2014
- Enabling a comprehensive claims database to be maintained
- To monitor and evaluate the nature, incidence, severity and consequences of service-related illness and injuries
- The provision of appropriate treatment, rehabilitation and compensation
- Facilitating the monitoring of the operation of the Act and policy development
- The information you give us may be shared with other government agencies for several purposes, such as the Ministry of Social Development – consistency with other benefits, Accident Compensation Commission – consistency with other claims, Maritime New Zealand – for merchant navy records, Inland Revenue – for payment of tax on taxable entitlements, Archives New Zealand – for service records and the Department of Internal Affairs – to verify your date of birth.

We only collect information needed to manage the entitlements we administer.

Using and sharing personal and health-related information

Veterans' Affairs may exchange information about you with your health practitioner(s) in order to provide you with the correct entitlements and assistance, to clarify any health-related information you give us and for the purposes of putting in place treatment and rehabilitation if required.

Veterans' Affairs will also collect personal and health information from a variety of sources including information provided when making an application to Veterans' Affairs, information supplied by others including treatment providers, and other government agencies.

The information we collect about you can be via various channels, such as email, telephone, face to face and in various formats, such as letters, forms and electronic file notes.

Veterans' Affairs uses personal information provided only for the purposes consistent with the reason it was obtained and will not share it with other parties unless there is a legal authority to do so.

You have the right to access and correct your personal information

You may access personal information that we hold about you. You can ask us to correct errors contained in the information we have about you.

You can contact us at anytime if you have concerns on what information about you we are collecting and how it is or may be used.

Please complete the Signature & Acknowledgement on page 6
