

If you can't work

If you are unable to work we may be able to help.

If you served before 1 April 1974 or in Viet Nam

Qualifying Service explained (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/eligibility/qualifying-service/>)

Weekly Income Compensation (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/a-z/weekly-income-compensation/>)—You may be able to get Weekly Income Compensation if you can't work full-time because of a condition—this does not need to be because of service.

Vocational Rehabilitation (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/a-z/vocational-rehabilitation/>)—You may be able to get Vocational Rehabilitation if you can't work full-time because of a condition and you need to get new skills or retrain.

If you served after 31 March 1974 on Qualifying Operational Service

You may be able to get support for a condition that stops you from working full-time. The condition needs to be related to Qualifying Operational Service.

Qualifying Operational Service explained (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/qualifying-service/qualifying-operational-service/>)

Weekly Compensation (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/a-z/weekly-compensation/>)—You may be able to get Weekly Compensation for those with a condition that stops them working full-time.

Vocational Rehabilitation (<https://www.veteransaffairs.mil.nz/a-z/vocational-rehabilitation/>)—You may be able to get Vocational Rehabilitation if you can't work full-time because of a condition and you need to get new skills or retrain.

ACC support if you cannot work because of a workplace injury (<https://www.acc.co.nz/im-injured/financial-support/weekly-compensation/>)

—ACC may be able to help with income support if your condition wasn't caused by Qualifying Operational Service.

If you cannot work because of a condition that isn't linked to Qualifying Operational Service, then you will need to contact your income insurance provider.

Last Modified: 13 December 2019